

Angel Therapy by Andrea Louise Watson

Day Time:

Interior of a new age therapist's treatment room.

Statues of Angels are dotted around the desk and a pendulum hangs over one of the Angels. Soft angels music plays and there are two chairs facing one another ready for the consultation. A couple enters the room. Angelina, a Geordie new age woman around 40 shows Paul, her client, into the treatment room.

Angelina

Come on through and take a seat Paul.

Paul

Thank you

They both sit

Angelina

So Paul, have you ever been to an Angel Therapists before?

Paul

No. I have never been to anything like this before.

Angelina

Aha. OK Paul. I'll start by telling you a little bit about me self.

My name is Angelina. Its not the name that my parents gave me, but it is certainly the name the Angels gave me. Now I have been working with the Angels now for just over 10 years and I can't tell you the number of times the Angels have thanked me for helping them. Now I am just like you Paul. Very bland and normal and not at all special. (pause) Well except the Angels did choose me to be their representative on this plane. I don't know why they choose me Paul, but what I can tell you is that it came at a time when I was going through a lot of heartache. My hamster had just died and I found out my application to Xfactor was rejected.

Paul

Right, OK. How did you know Angels were around?

Angelina

Let me tell you Paul. I was feeling very down at work and I asked for guidance on what I should do with me life when a pure white feather fell down from the sky and landed on my right shoulder and I knew in an instant that they were tapping me on the shoulder an telling me – This way pet, work with us! Now the skeptic's out there may say that the flying feather was because I was working in a factory stuffing duvet's, but I knew in my gut what it meant and I have not looked back.

Paul

Right. Erm. Smashing. Can I ask how much this will cost me?

Angelina.

Its £80 for 1 hr

Paul

WOW! That's more than I was expecting.

Angelina.

I work in energy gifted to me from the Angels and you shouldn't think of the £80 as money but simply an exchange of energy.

So lets hear a little bit about you Paul. Why are you here?

Paul

Erm, right. I am here because of my bad back. Someone at work said you do Reiki which helped their back and.....

Angelina

Angel Reiki Paul! There is a small subtle difference in that I channel Arch Angel Raphael . Continue – How did you hurt your back?

Paul

I think it was because of my piles (gets a frog in his thought and does a little cough) of wood that I had to move on my own when I building a fence.

Angelina

I'm glad that you added the word "wood" there Paul because I wouldn't want to touch your piles. No. That would be for the doctor. Although if did have piles it would indicate a blockage in your root chakra.

Paul

I don't have piles!

Angelina

Well we'll take a look at that later and check

Paul

It's just my back really

Angelina

Now I am sensing that you were going through a time of stress when you hurt your back

Paul

Well yes, I suppose I was. I was about to get married

Angelina

Ahea, and you changed your mind and you didn't wanna marry her!

Paul

No! I couldn't wait to get married.

Angelina

But she didn't wanna marry you!

Paul

No! We loved each other and both wanted to get married.

Angelina

My Angels are never wrong Paul. One of you didn't want to get married and if its not you then I have to tell ya she didn't wanna marry you.

Paul

We are married. Happily for 3 years! Can we get back to my back? I strained it immensely and I have been suffering ever since. The painkillers aren't touching it and this is a last resort after trying everything else.

Angelina.

Aha – I hear what your saying Paul but your aura is really annoying me. It's really distracting. Do you mind if I swing me pendulum over you?

Angelina gets up and puts the pendulum over his head.

Oh Paul, your so out of balance pet! This could take a number of sessions. I need to spray you with Angel water before we continue as the negativity around you is really hurting me.

She takes out a small bottle from he cardigan and starts vigorously spraying Paul who is not happy about the amount of water she is spraying in his face.

Paul

Can you stop that! Please stop it

Angelina

I am sensing a lot of hostility with you at the moment, you need to take a deep breath and relax.

Paul

Are you even qualified?

Angelina

I am as organic as they come Paul. My lessons were not in a class and my exams were marked by Arch Angel Michael himself – I don't need a piece of paper telling what I am legally allowed to do. My trust is in my Angels Paul and your needs to be with me. Now if you go over the bed and lie down I'll take a look at that root chakra.

Paul

Look I don't think this is for me
